

April 5 - 11, 2002

During the past week Terra successfully performed a drag make-up maneuver. This maneuver tested the new mode transition requirements. The MODIS instrument continues to operate successfully.

Terra also conducted the fourth ground network test. The results will be presented at the Aqua delta MRR on April 15.